

TRANSPORTATION AND SCHEDULES NUMBER

JUNE, 1922

HERE ARE YOUR RAILROAD INSTRUCTIONS.

Every accepted camper will receive a letter giving complete instructions and suggestions concerning the camps. As the transportation part of these instructions is exceedingly important we are giving this information in this issue of Conference Pointers, in order that campers may familiarize themselves with traveling plans. Read carefully and act accordingly.

Geneva Glen, on Parmalee Gulch, Colorado.

Buy your ticket to Denver, Colorado, and then take the 8:20 a. m. train on the Colorado and Southern Railroad to Morrison, Colorado, arriving at 9:25 a. m. You will be met at the station and taken to camp by auto. This is the best and proper way to get to camp, but if you miss this train, take either the ten, twelve, two or four o'clock electric car to Golden, Colorado, which is six miles from camp. These electric cars will be met by automobiles. Ask your ticket agent for special round trip reduced rates. Get in touch with your state leader for delegation traveling plans.

Geneva Point, Winnepesaukee, N. H.

Buy your ticket to Weirs Station, N. H., on the Boston and Maine Railroad. Study your railroad schedules so as to enable you to get to Wiers in time to get on the big boat, which will take the campers direct to Geneva Point. This boat will leave Wiers about 3:15 in the afternoon. You will be met at the railroad station and piloted to the boat and to camp. The boat landing is right at the station. Write your state leader regarding traveling plans for your delegation. If you do not know the name of your state leader, write us.

Conference Point, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Reduced railroad rates of a fare and a half have been granted from all parts of the United States. The plan this year is a bit different from last. All accepted campers will receive from our office a round trip certificate. Present this at your ticket office and you will be able to purchase a round trip ticket at fare and a half. Tickets must be purchased at least thirty minutes before train time. If there are a large group of campers leaving from the same station, better buy your tickets a day in advance.

You can purchase your ticket to Williams Bay, Walworth, Fontana or Harvard. Nearly all campers use the Williams Bay station (located on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad). Girl campers can purchase their tickets from August 5-8, inclusive; boy campers can purchase their tickets August 19-22, inclusive. Follow instructions and you will have no trouble. Do not lose your certificate; put it in a safe place so that you can locate it readily when you want to purchase your ticket.

Get in touch with your state leader regarding delegation traveling plans.

CAMP DAYS ARE HERE.

Well, we're off. Camp days have actually arrived. It seems but yesterday that we said our goodby's in the 1921 camps. Time flies. And yet, the time has passed slowly for those who have been looking forward throughout the year to the 1922 camps.

This will be the biggest season for the International Camp Conferences since those "beginning" days in 1914. The three camps at Geneva Point, Geneva Glen and Conference Point, will register more than eleven hundred campers and leaders. It is not hard to feel the thrill and the pull of a great group like this. The very size of the summer camps is a big challenge to each one of us, to "play the game" to the full.

Old campers, we will be glad to greet you again. The new campers will not long be "new," for everyone feels "at home" the moment they arrive in "The Camps of the Four Fold Life" or the "Camps of a Hundred Fires."

Come to camp resolved to "give" and you will "get" your full share of the good of the camp. If you desire information on any point, write your state leader, or direct to us, and we will be glad to help you out.

"TEN-SHUN EVERYBODY" — KANSAS CITY.

Are you going to the International Convention in Kansas City? If you are, drop a card at once to Walter C. Moore, 204 Y. M. C. A Building, Kansas City, Mo., and tell him you're coming. This applies to all campers, leaders, State Young People's Division Superintendents, and those who have attended the Young People's section of the Training Schools at Winnepesaukee or Conference Point. The "Geneva Club" of Kansas City are planning a big reunion and you are invited to the barbecue, or whatever-ma-jig it is. If you want to get your share of the eats, notify Walter right away that you will be on hand, and on your card tell what you are, "Camper," "Leader," "Training School" or "State Superintendent." Do this immediately.

KINJI'S COLUMN.

While on a walk this afternoon, I smelled wood-smoke. And what memories it brought! Immediately I realized that in a few short weeks, the Council Circles at Conference Point, Geneva Point and Geneva Glen would be alive with Camp life, and that the conferences would be in full swing again.

This has been the objective of our planning since the camps closed last summer. Our hopes and the promise of the future lie in these camp conferences. Every year our conviction in this regard is strengthened and every year a fine new bunch of prospective leaders join with us for the life worth while.

The biggest thing this coming summer will be the new camp conferences at Geneva Glen in the "Rockies." Geneva thus welcomes another daughter into the family. In the fall number of Conference Pointers there will undoubtedly be pictures of Geneva Glen and the camp buildings. They have been newly constructed and are the last word in everything. A mile and a third high in the clear, blue clouds, Geneva Glen on the roof of the world, astride the backbone of North America!

Geneva Glen's Council will be on the pine-crest of a mountain.

But it makes little difference which of the camps one attends. The Geneva spirit is everywhere in each. By the sandy coves of Winnepesaukee or in her forest stretches; in the gulches or among the trout streams of Geneva Glen, along the shores, or in the Tipi at Lake Geneva, it matters not. All of us are blood brothers and sisters, the vanguard of a new day and order in which the spirit of the Jesus Way of Living will lead.

My hand aches to shake yours, as I think of meeting you this summer. You will not fail me!

With camp affection,
Kinji.

A SONG OF TRUST.

I cannot always see the way that leads
To heights above;
I sometimes quite forget He leads me on
With hand of love;
But yet I know the path must lead to
Immanuel's land,
And, when I reach life's summit, I shall know
And understand.

I cannot always trace the onward course
My ship must take;
But looking backward I behold afar
Its shining wake
Illumined with God's light of love, and so
I onward go,
In perfect trust that He who holds the helm
The course must know.

I cannot always see the plan on which
He builds my life,
For oft the sound of hammers, blow on
blow,
The noise of strife,
Confuses me till I forget He knows
And oversees,
And that in all details with His good
plan
My life agrees.

I cannot always know and understand
The Master's rule;
I cannot always do the tasks He gives
In life's hard school;
But I am learning with His help to solve
Them, one by one,
And—when I cannot understand—to
say,
"Thy will be done."
—[Gertrude Curtis in The Lutheran
Witness.

WORKING OF TRUE LOVE.

Put a seal upon your lips, and forget what you have done. After you have been kind, after love has stolen forth into the world and done its beautiful work, go back into the shade again and say nothing about it. Love hides even from itself.—[Professor Drummond.

HAIL TO THE BEACONS!

Greetings to you all, Beacons, each and every shining one of you. I'm wondering if, true to your name, you have your "lights all trimmed," ready to return to Geneva this summer to put your best self and your best efforts into the camp life. That means being four-fold and having your prescriptions all filled out, and O. K.'d by "Daddy" Waite before returning to Geneva. I'm hoping we won't have any foolish virgins among the Beacons, having the camp door shut upon them because of failure to attend to this. Oh, yes, we want plenty of oil for our lamps, too, so Kinji won't have to say to us at the beginning of the second week, "Say, you folks think you're going fast, but you're awfully slow." Spirit, pep, enthusiasm all the way through. What say you, Beacons? Let's set the pace this year at Camp.

And there is just one thing more we ought to do if the good old Beacon Class is to live up to its record begun last summer. Our class pledge, although over the five hundred mark, hasn't been paid in full by any means as yet. Wouldn't it be fine if we could reach the top, $950.00, and go over? Suppose you sit down right now and make out a check or money order to Mr. P. G. Orwig, 1516 Mallery Building, Chicago, for the amount you pledged at camp last summer. If you can't pay the whole amount, I know Wadjepi will be glad to receive as much as you can pay at this time. I'll be waiting to hear from "Glad," your President, what the total amounts to. Let's go to it.

Yours for the Beacon Class,
MARY E. SCHROEDER,
Mentor.

You may succeed when others do not believe in you, but never when you do not believe in yourself.—[The Watchman.

To see what is right and not do it, is want of courage.

AMERICA'S TRADEMARK.

"Wherever the Germans go, you find an arsenal; wherever the French go, you find a railroad; wherever the British go, you find a customs house; and wherever the Americans go, you find a school house." This is the observation of a thoughtful Englishman. America is in the East whether we will or not. American mission schools, five hundred of them, "are scattered between Constantinople and the Nile, and it is true that the American teacher is always accorded the right of way in the East." The leading men and women of that territory are graduates of American schools. This is America's opportunity as well as America's responsibility to Asia.

Be a Booster.

HARD WORK.

All successful men and women always have one great quality in their characters in common. That quality is good work. They throw themselves into their work without thought of it. Think of Thomas A. Edison who sleeps only six hours a day! His own comforts come last in his thoughts. His first thoughts are to have a success in his work. When one really abandons himself to his work, then his work becomes one of the most fascinating, one of the most absorbing, and one of the most pleasurable factors in his life.

The two most precious things on this side of the grave are our reputation and our life, yet it is to be lamented that the most contemptible whisper may rob us of one and the weakest weapon rob us of the other.

College. During his college course he was a camper and leader in the International Older Boys' Camp Conference at Conference Point, on Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. Upon his graduation from college he became the Superintendent for Young Peoples' work of the Chicago Sunday School Association and later on the Superintendent of Young People's work for the Minneapolis Sunday School Association. At the outbreak of the war he joined the aviation forces of the United States, and with the armistice was retired from the service with the rank of lieutenant.

On his discharge from the aviation service he became the Young People's Superintendent for the Ohio Sunday School Association and after a short term of service was invited by the trustees of Boston University to become the Professor of Religious Education along the lines of young people's work. Mr. Mayer is just completing his second year in this position at Boston University and is recognized as one of the leading authorities in Young People's work on the continent.

With the extension of the International Sunday School Training Schools and Camp Conferences from Wisconsin to New England, Mr. Mayer was appointed by the Board of Managers to the position of Director of Young People's work in the Training School and Director of the International Older Boys' and Older Girls' Camp Conferences at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

One who says an encouraging word to a disheartened neighbor; gives a look of love to a lonely one, or speaks a sentence which may become strength, guidance or comfort to another, does something worth while. We never know how small a thing may become a benediction to a human life.

The Groves were God's first temples. Ere man learned
To hue the shaft, and lay the architrave,
And spread the roof above them,—ere he framed
The lofty vault, to gather and roll back
The sound of anthems; in the darkling wood,
Amidst the cool and silence, he knelt down
And offered to the Mightiest solemn thanks
And supplication.
